Claim 18: Maybe. But claim uses "Comprising" and "Consisting essentially of" language for same structure ... the bridge structure.

Claim 21: No good. This is how all igniters with this structure works.

I would clean up claim 18 for allowance and pursue the remaining claims in an RCE. I would do this even though you intend to appeal to clear up 112 issues and place claims in better condition to read over other p/a available.
